Who Defines You?

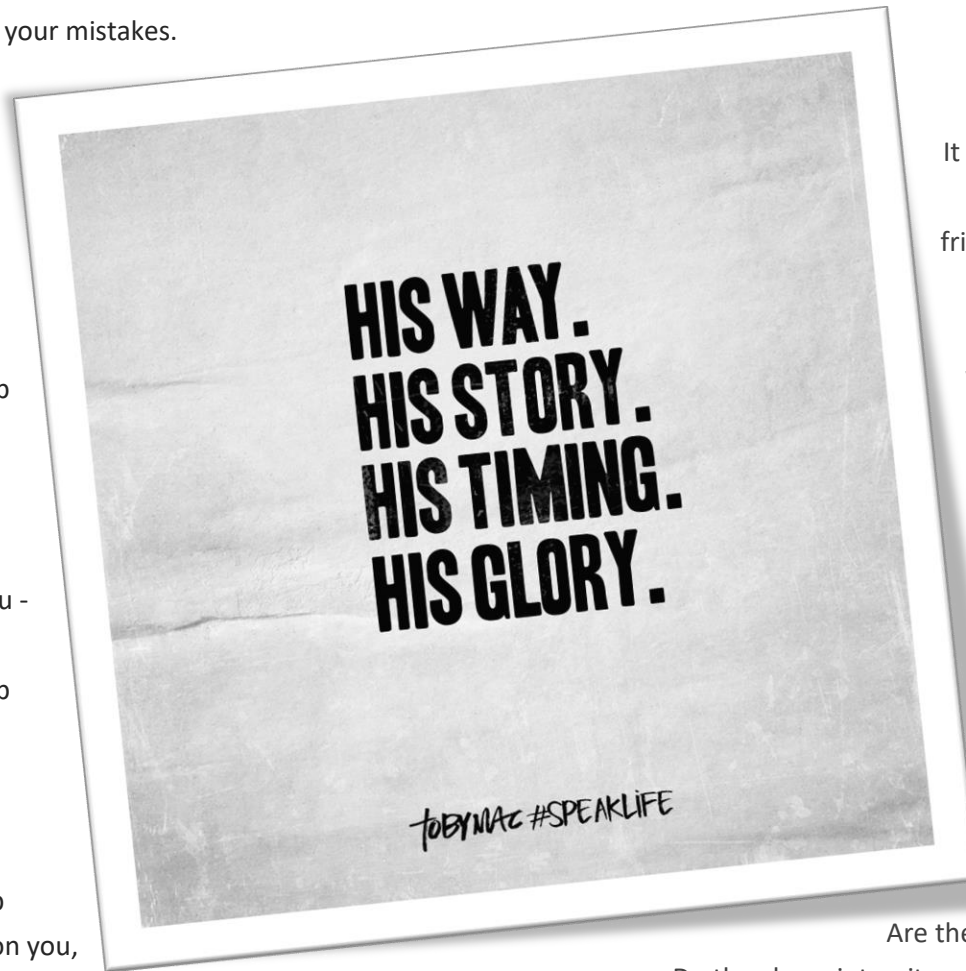

Revelation 12:10 - For the accuser of our brothers and sisters has been thrown down to earth—the one who accuses them before our God - day and night

Some people will try to define you by your mistakes.

They'll stick labels on you with accusations - reminding you of the times you failed - times you compromised - times you didn't measure up... If you gave into temptation, got divorced, or failed at business... you went through a bad season... Don't let it define you – keep going.

Don't let people label you. They can't stop what God has ordained for your life. The only person who can stop you - is you. If you believe the lies from the accuser of the brethren, that will keep you from your destiny. You may have failed, but you're not a failure.

That moment of your life doesn't determine your future. You can't stop others from putting a negative label on you, but you can take it right off. "I'm not defined by my mistakes. I'm defined by what God says about me. I am forgiven. I am redeemed. My failures are in my yesterday!"

Who Are You Walking With?

Proverbs 13:20 - ...Become wise by walking with the wise; hang out with fools and watch your life fall to pieces...

It is very important HOW we spend our time.
And it is equally important WHO we are spending time with.

It could be, the only thing that's keeping you from a new level of your destiny is wrong friendships. You may have to prune off some relationships that are not adding value to your life. Refuse to hang around people who are not going anywhere, who have no goals or dreams, who compromise and take the easy way out.

If you tolerate mediocrity, it will rub off on you. If you hang out with jealous, critical, unhappy people, you will end up jealous, critical, and unhappy. You cannot become who God created you to be hanging around the wrong people.

It is time to examine your friends.

Are they winners, leaders, givers, and successful?

Do they have integrity and a spirit of excellence? Are they positive? Are they motivated? Those good qualities are going to rub off on you.

Invest your time with quality, life changing people - and reap the dividends!
