

Healing Scriptures To Speak Daily

When you need healing—you need faith! To activate and grow your faith for healing, the Word of God is a powerful tool in getting the truth down inside your spirit. Faith comes by hearing the Word of God—over and over and over.

The following Scriptures will help us get healed and stay healed. Read them continually to keep your faith strong. Speak Them like you would take medicine until every symptom is gone - then daily to maintain Divine health.
