"The one who is afraid of God stays at a distance. The one who fears God stays close"

--- John Bevere

Is It Your Time?

Esther 4:14 - Who knows if perhaps you were made queen for just such a time as this?

Ester was a Jewish orphan living in exile in Persia whom God raised up out of obscurity to become the queen. When a decree was made that on a certain date all the Israelites were to be annihilated, Esther, against court protocol, went into the king's chamber unannounced. That was forbidden, and unless she was granted the king's favor, she could be put to death.

Her attitude was: "I've been raised up for such a time as this, and I cannot shrink back in fear. If I perish, I perish." Because Esther stepped into the unknown by faith, the king changed the decree and the Israelites were saved.

God is looking for some Esthers today.

Perhaps you're facing a problem with huge consequences. You'll be tempted to shrink back, let fear and intimidation convince you to play it safe. But God wants to show Himself strong through your life.

You are where you are for just such a time as this. God will do what only He can do when you activate your faith and step forward. Arise and take the first step.

In the Middle of a Miracle

James 1:3 - For you know that when your faith is tested, your endurance has a chance to grow.

When we think of miracles, we think of when God suddenly turns things around. Jesus touched the blind man, and his eyes were opened. Moses held up his staff, and the Red Sea parted. But not all miracles are instantaneous.

Sometimes we're praying and believing, but our health isn't improving or our dream isn't coming to pass. You may think, "God, why aren't You doing something?" You don't realize that God is sustaining you, pushing back forces of darkness, keeping you from getting discouraged and giving up. You're in the middle of a miracle, but you can't always see it. It's the miracle of endurance.

One day you'll look back and think, "How did I make it through that season when I didn't think I had the strength to go on?" God didn't deliver you from it, but He gave you the grace to go through it. Without His hand of protection, favor, and blessing, you wouldn't be where you are. We love instantaneous miracles, but it's no less of a miracle when God takes you through what should have taken you out.
