Push People Up

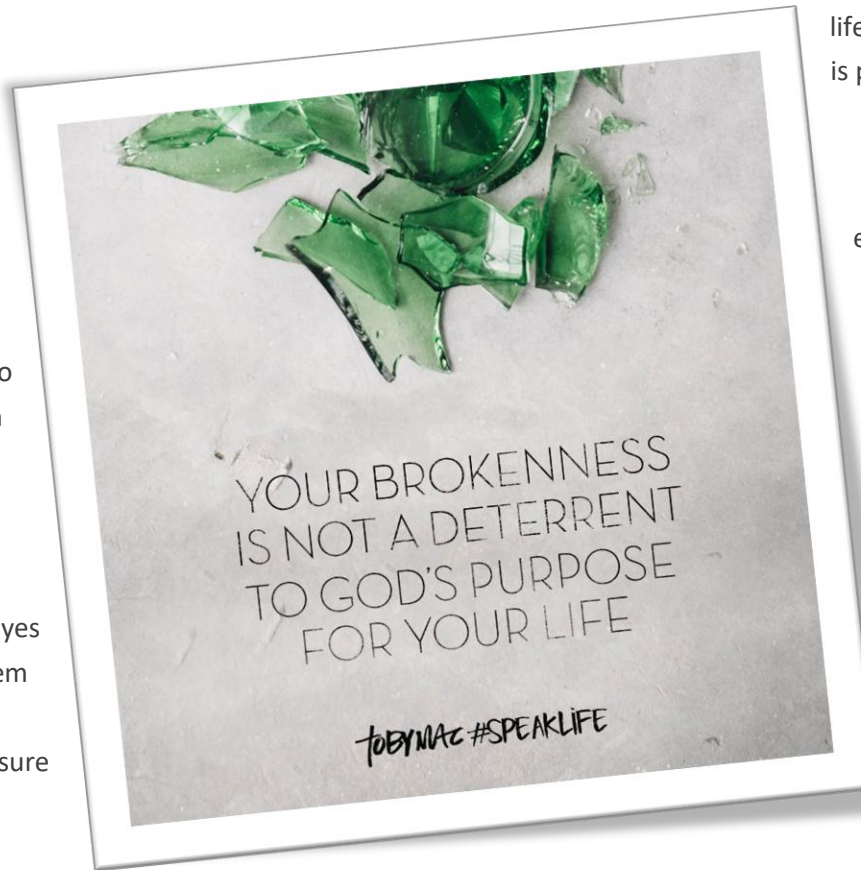

Ecclesiastes 4:9-10 - Two are better than one...if either of them falls down, one can help the other up...

We all need somebody to believe in us more than we believe in ourselves. We all need people who will push us up, so to speak, when we are down. After all, there are enough people trying to keep us down in life. There are enough people telling us what we can't become and how we don't have what it takes. Let's help each other up.

In our own lives, we wouldn't be half of who we are if it were not for people building us up. People who spoke faith into us. People who called out the potential on the inside. I believe we all have the responsibility to do this for others.

Let's be that encourager to someone else. Let's push people up. Let's look with our eyes of faith and see their potential and tell them what they can become. If you will be that person for somebody else, God will make sure somebody will be that person for you.

We all have seeds of greatness on the inside. We are created in the Image of God. You can cause others, including your spouse and children, to rise to a new level. You can be the catalyst for people to do things they never thought possible. Your words have creative power. When you speak vision, that can be the seed God uses to thrust them to a new level.

He Prepares Your Path

Isaiah 45:2 – “I will go before you and make the crooked places straight...”

Are you in a season where every step forward feels like hitting a roadblock? Be encouraged—when you submit your life to the Lord, He promises to go before you. He is preparing the way, making your crooked places straight and your rough places smooth.

Even if you're facing difficulty now, it's not the end—it's only the beginning. God has equipped you for this journey. If you feel stuck in a dry season, don't focus on your circumstances. Focus on God's promises.

Speak words of faith. God promises to anoint your head with oil and cause your cup to overflow. That means He'll refresh you and empower you to do what He's called you to do. He is actively preparing your path and giving you what you need to move forward.

So what can you do today? Start by checking your attitude. Avoid grumbling or focusing on the negative. Instead, put on an attitude of praise and thanksgiving. Thank Him in advance for making your crooked places straight. Keep your eyes on Him. Trust Him to lead you forward—step by step—into the path of victory.
