"God has enough grace to solve every dilemma you face... Wipe every tear you cry... And answer every question you ask..." - Max Lucado

Through the Desert

Isaiah 48:21 - They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts; he made water flow for them from the rock; he split the rock and water gushed out.

Deserts represent hard, barren, or difficult places in our lives. They are seasons that could overwhelm us without trust in God. When you look back over your life, you can see the times when God gave you water in the desert. He will do it again.

At the time, maybe you were so caught up in the troubles and trying to make it through, you didn't recognize the grace of God on your life. Reality is, He was giving you strength, and favor, and helping you do what you couldn't do.

No matter what you go through—an illness, a lack, a betrayal—because you're a child of the Most High God, there's going to be water in the desert. It's not going to overwhelm you. It's not going to be too much for you.

God is going to give you strength that you can't explain, courage that you didn't know you had, favor that you didn't see coming, and the right people at the right time to help.

Get ready. When He makes the water flow, you will flourish and blossom in the desert...

Through the Valleys

Philippians 3:14 - I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

In Psalm 23, David said, I walk through the darkest valley. He didn't say, I will set up camp in the valley and stay there. He said, this valley is not my home; the throne is.

I refuse to settle in the middle. I may have been a shepherd boy, with no skills, connections, or the training to become king. But I refuse to give up when it's hard, when life's not fair, when it takes a long time... I have faith for the middle.

God is not dependent on what you lack. When He breathes His life into you, He will equip you with everything you need. When things come against you, and you're tempted to settle - Like David - you must dig your heels in and say believe God to finish what He started in you.

Have mindset that says, I may not understand it, but I'm not going to get stuck in the valley. I'm going to keep moving forward.

Remember, God is in control and the difficulties are just steps on the way to the promise of the upward call of God in your life.

When you find yourself in the valley, don't give up or settle there—keep pressing forward, keep trusting God, and remember that the valley is not your destination; it's simply part of the journey...
